About Terra Rossa

The Fertile Green Crescent, the Levant, which covers Palestine, Jordan, Syria and Lebanon, is home to some of the oldest olive trees dating back to Biblical times. The olive trees are planted in the "Terra Rossa" (Red Soil) region, the Latin name given to that part of the Middle East. With its magnificent Mediterranean climate, this region has the ideal soil for cultivating olive groves, citrus fruits and grape vines. Growing and nurturing olive trees is embedded in the local culture and olive oil has been used for food, medicine and light in this part of the world for well over 6000 years.

Over the last 19 years, Terra Rossa has been bringing awareness to exquisite Arabian cuisine and offers premium flavours of award-winning Arabian Olive Oils which forms part of the Levantine staple diet. Aside from using them to enhance the flavours of cooking everyday food, they are also traditionally eaten as a snack or an aperitif by dipping a piece of bread into the oil and then into a range of herb mixes such as Herby Zaatar Thyme, Spicy Dukka Coriander and Zesty Sumac Citrus Berry.

To obtain the very best quality first cold pressed extra virgin olive oil (Evo), the purple-green olives are crushed using a stone wheel and then extracted using a centrifugal method within 12 hours being harvested. To satisfy those who care about the origin and purity of the oil they consume, the infused oils are made from infusing this same first cold pressed Evo with the very best of fresh Jordanian herbs and fruits.

It was only a matter of time before Terra Rossa created its own UK hand-made Mezze range of sauces such as Dukka Harissa, Zhoug Green Harissa, Aubergine Relish and Zaatar & Pine Nuts Sauce. New Sauces released in 2023 include Taratour Tahini Sauce & Dressing, Plum Tomatoes with Zaatar as well as Zaatar Ketchup.

For those with a sweet tooth you should try the 2015 and 2018 3-Star Great Taste Awarded Baba's Rashi & Dibis with Sesame Seeds – the Arabian equivalent of peanut butter and Honey/chocolate spread - which also won the 2018 Golden Fork Winner for London & South East.
